Summary

I am a hardworking and conscientious person, who has excellent time keeping skills and an impeccable attendance record. I already have some experience with T.V and Radio through my modules at university, which has helped me build up a unique and different skill set which includes being technologically adept with a strong understanding of professional computer software and equipment.

Skills

- Due to the modules I am currently studying within my degree, I have gained many new skills which have come particularly from the practical ones: T.V. Production, Radio Production and Image Creation.
- Interviewing skills from radio production module
- I have a strong know-how when it comes to using Adobe editing software, particularly Photoshop and Audition.
- I am more than competent when it comes to using industry standard equipment such as T.V. cameras, both mobile and studio based, as well as being knowledgeable in the behind the scenes production side of things.
- I can create images and posters with a strong attention to detail in order to produce the best quality work.

Other Experiences

- For the last two years, I have been commissioned to produce posters for a local charity event where my work has helped to boost ticket sales to record levels, as well as advertising to a whole new, wider demographic.
- I was also nominated for a Hexham and Newcastle Catholic Partnership Media Oscar for my production work during sixth form.
- As a group project for one of my modules I have helped to create and bring to life a new and original T.V show which has involved script writing and a hands on approach within the studio working on cameras and editing.
- I have also had to go out into the streets and collect raw audio by interviewing the public in order to create a 'Vox Pop' with the aim to turn it into a podcast.

Mindset

- I am a very adaptable person which is apparent through my work in other jobs as I have taken on many roles to help out wherever I'm required to make sure the job is done to a good standard.
- By working in such a tight knit group in such as stressful environment I have built up good team working skills from my current job as well as the ability to work in stressful and demanding environment when it becomes extremely busy.
- I would also class myself as someone who has remained flexible to the needs of my employer, by always making an attempt to come in last minute for an extra shift if extra help is required. As well as picking up last minute shifts and covering my fellow workers. This has all helped my employer build up trust and confidence in me as she knows she can rely on me.
- Attention to detail- which has come through my academic work as well as my extra-curricular work, such as the posters.
